"The bariem chloride furnished an antidote for the arsenic, as it made those who ate the soup vomit and get the other poison out of their system," said Dr. Robertson.
"Of course, in this case it is not correct to say that the victims escaped because they got too much poison," said Dr. Robertson. "Our tests show that there was an average of 3.7 grains of arsenic for every pint of soup. That would allow 11-3 grains for each guest, while the minimum dose to be fatal would be 2 grains. The letter is authentic, all right."

Detectives Think Crones | GUNMEN SILENCED Still Is Hiding Here

A score of detectives under Captain Tunney, of the Anarchist squad, are working on the theory that Jean Crones, who is alleged to have poisoned more than three hundred persons at a dinner in Chicago, is still in this city. The belief that the letter signed with his name and posted in New York is genuine was confirmed yesterday by dispatches from the International Correspondence School of Scranton, Penn, where it was discovered that the writing tallied with that in letters Crones sent ed with that in letters Crones sent Superintendent of Police Ernest Marquardt received the original information which resulted in the arrests. Bartholoma was picked up in Flint by Detective Donovan under instructions. He is said to have tried to purchase dynamite in Detroit. The police refuse to comment on the arrests or their circumstances.

Joreph G. Johnson, district manager of the American Car and Foundry Company, admitted having heard numerous rumors of plans to dynamite the munitions plant. The factory has been guarded closely as a result.

When detectives searched Bartholoma, they say they found in his pocket a notebook containing a draft of a letter was signed by Bartholoma.
